

FUND STRATEGY

The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing in the common stocks of small and mid-cap companies which have the potential to deliver above-average long-term earnings growth, in which earnings and sales growth, valuation, and profitability are assessed through fundamental-based research. The Fund looks for companies which are market leaders in growth industries, have a strong brand name, and whose sales and earnings have increased at a consistent rate. The investment approach includes the analysis of company financial statements in addition to meeting with corporate managements.

Calendar Year Returns

QUARTERLY UPDATE

- The Fund declined -25.00% during 4Q 2018 and underperformed the Russell 2500 Growth Index which declined -20.08%. Though the Fund experienced strong performance through the first nine months of 2018 (+24.24%) and outperformed the benchmark gain of +15.78%, markets dropped significantly during the fourth quarter due to fears related to the Federal Reserve's conduct of monetary policy and the U.S. trade policy. For the calendar year, the Fund declined -6.83% and outperformed the Russell 2500 Growth Index which declined -7.47%.
- For 4Q 2018, investments in Information Technology and Health Care were the primary reasons for the Fund's underperformance. Biotechnology investments, in particular, declined significantly during the market sell off which predominated during the quarter despite steady product success. Allocations to the Energy and Materials sectors provided positive relative performance due to the Fund's underweighting to these sectors. For the calendar year, the Fund's outperformance was mainly due to its investments in Information Technology, which led the Fund with positive returns. The Fund also had relative outperformance in 2018 from its investments in the Energy, Materials, Financials, Industrials and Consumer Discretionary sectors. Lagging relative performance came from the Utilities, Consumer Staples, Communication Services and Health Care sectors.
- Investments in Workday, Twilio, and Genmab led the Fund and were positive contributors during a quarter in which most stocks declined. The dominant laggards included: NVIDIA, Sarepta, SAGE Therapeutics, and bluebird. For the calendar year, the Fund's leading contributors were Workday, ServiceNow, Avexis (takeover), New Relic, and Paycom Software. The largest detractors included: SAGE, bluebird, Amazon, NVIDIA, and Alnylam – four of these previously led in 2017.
- At the end of the quarter, the Top 10 and Top 50 holdings comprised 37.1% and 78.2% respectively of the Fund versus 35.2% and 70.9% the prior quarter. The Top 100 investments comprised 94.9% versus 90.3% last quarter.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

P/E: The weighted average of the price/earnings (P/E) ratios of the equity securities referenced. The P/E ratio is calculated by dividing the current price of the stock by the trailing earnings per share for the past 12 months.

The Russell 2500 Growth Index measures the performance of the small to mid-cap growth segment of the U.S. equity universe. It includes those Russell 2500 companies with higher price-to-book ratios and higher forecasted growth values. You cannot invest directly in an index.

The Morningstar Mid Cap Growth Portfolios feature firms that are projected to grow faster than other mid-cap stocks. The U.S. mid cap range for market capitalization typically falls between $1 billion and $8 billion and represents 20% of the total capitalization of the U.S. equity market. Growth is defined based on fast growth (high growth rates for earnings, sales, book value, and cash flow) and high valuations (high price ratios and low dividend yields).

DISCLOSURES

Mutual Fund investing involves risk. Principal loss is possible. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. The Fund invests in smaller companies, which involve additional or special risks such as small companies rely on limited product lines, financial resources and business activities that may make them more susceptible than larger companies to setbacks or downturns; and small cap stocks are less liquid and more thinly traded which make them more volatile than stocks of larger companies.
